END DATE: the program will end with a recital in early to mid-May

This program will provide instruction in ballet & tap and gymnastics/tumbling for children ages 2-10. Classes will be held each Tuesday or Thursday in the Multi-Purpose Room at the Liberty County Community Complex in Midway. The fee is $60 per month per child and is due prior to the first class of each month. This fee may be paid by check or cash to LCRD staff at the class or by credit card at the LCCC Office. There will be a recital for all students in mid to early May and the fee for the costume and other recital expenses is $60 per student, payable to the instructor by the end of February. Students must wear leotards and tights to classes and obtain both ballet and tap shoes. The instructor will provide advice for the purchase of these items. The instructor is Cheryl Brett who has over 30 years of experience as a dance instructor. Ms. Brett will be in charge of this program at all times and has the authority to remove anyone that fails to follow the rules set forth for this program. Should there be issues that cannot be resolved through Ms. Brett, the LCRD Director may be contacted at (912)876-5359.

RULES

1. Students and parents are required to follow the rules set forth in this information letter and by the instructor at all times.
2. Food and drink are NOT allowed in the dance studio area at any time. A water fountain is available.
3. Parents may NOT stay and watch the class. The library should be open if you need a place to hangout while the class is in progress.
4. Parents are welcome to talk to the instructor either before or after classes. Do not interrupt class to ask questions of the instructor or to help coach your child.
